

Congratulations to the Phoenix Writers Club on 100 Years of Service!

Dear Members of the Phoenix Writers Club,

It is with great admiration and heartfelt congratulations that we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Phoenix Writers Club.

For an incredible century, your organization has provided encouragement, inspiration, support, and a sense of community to writers and aspiring authors. Your commitment to nurturing creativity and giving writers a place to share their voices has made a lasting impact on the literary community.

One hundred years of service is a remarkable achievement. Through generations of writers, changing times, and an ever-evolving literary world, the Phoenix Writers Club has continued to stand as a source of connection, knowledge, mentorship, and inspiration. Your dedication has helped countless writers pursue their dreams, develop their craft, and find their voice.

Richard and Rebecca Dyer, Editors of the Blue Guitar Magazine and Unstrung would also like to extend a special thank-you to the members of the Phoenix Writers Club who have submitted their wonderful work to our consortium's magazines, Blue Guitar and Unstrung. Your willingness to share your creativity, stories, poetry, and perspectives helps strengthen the connection between writers and literary communities. We truly appreciate your contributions and the opportunity to showcase your voices in our publications.

Thank you as well for inviting me to speak at your group's meetings throughout the years. It has always been a pleasure and an honor to spend time with your members, share ideas, and be part of your wonderful literary community.

And most of all, thank you for being our valued partner at our Annual Blue Guitar Festival of the Arts for the past two years. Your partnership, enthusiasm, and support have helped make the festival a meaningful celebration of creativity and the arts. We are grateful for the relationship we have built and look forward to continuing to grow together.

As you celebrate this extraordinary milestone, may you take pride in the legacy you have created and the many lives you have touched through the written word. May the next 100 years bring continued growth, creativity, fellowship, and opportunities for writers throughout our community.

Congratulations to the Phoenix Writers Club on 100 years of inspiring, connecting, and supporting the writing community! Your legacy is truly something to celebrate, and we look forward to seeing all that you will accomplish in the years ahead.

With warmest congratulations, gratitude, and appreciation,

Elena Thornton, Founder/CEO, Arizona Consortium for the Arts
